A proper Sunday lunch @ The Crown & Anchor Sowerby

At The Crown and Anchor we take Sunday Lunch very seriously. This is one of the most uncomplicated meals to prepare, yet so many pubs seem to make an awful mess of this most classic of British meals. But if done well, a traditional Sunday Roast can be so good. Why use frozen potatoes, vegetables and Yorkshire Puddings? Or for that matter plastic meat and gravy? Many do! We do not!

We start with top quality beef and pork fresh from our butcher. The joints are roasted really slowly to give fantastic tenderness, and to produce lots of lovely juices for the gravy. The meat is complimented by homemade Yorkshire Pudding, stuffing made from scratch, and fresh vegetables. Finally we serve pan roasted potatoes and delicious gravy made from the meat juices and the water used to boil the vegetables in. Nothing could be better.

The Roasts are complimented by a small range of starters and puddings, often including pâté, homemade soup, treacle sponge or a range of Brymor Ice creams.

Sunday lunch is served 12.30pm to 2.30pm on Sundays. One course is £7.50, two courses are £10.00 and three courses £12.50. For children the prices are £4.00, £6.50 and £9.00. Booking is advisable.
